

Team -

Today, the Board met and officially welcomed its three new members, Matt Cohler of Benchmark, Wan Ling Martello of Nestlé and David Trujillo of TPG.

It was decided that the search for a new chief executive will be led by a Board subcommittee consisting of Matt, Arianna, Travis, Wan Ling and David with the support of an outside search firm. Following its unanimous approval of the Covington report last week, the Board also created a new oversight committee with Matt, Arianna and David to ensure the company swiftly implements the recommendations.

There was a lot of energy in the room about Uber's next chapter, and we will do our best to ensure that employees hear first about the changes we need to make to better serve our employees, our customers, and communities around the world.

Thanks,

Arianna, David, Garrett, Matt, Ryan, Travis, Wan Ling and Yasir
